

It is an integrated pharmacy services in all its divisions, known in Hospitals. Which contribute to virtual pharmacy prepare and train students early so that they can later practice a faster and the confidence of their colleagues who receive training only during the experiential period.

Virtual pharmacy contains a sufficient amount of medicines and lotions, various pharmaceuticals in order to provide pharmaceutical training on a high degree of Quality, similar to the reality of real practice in hospitals.

